COURTS AND JURIES.

SEVERAL DECISIONS RENDERED YESTERDAY.

The Royal Case—Adjournment of the Supreme Court—The Criminal Docket.

In the Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday, in the case of Shoemaker and others against Calkins, from the Circuit Court of Nansemond county, Judge Lacy delivered the opinion reversing the lower court.

Smith against Wortham and others, from the Circuit Court of Amherst county. Affirmed, Judge Fannell delivering the opinion. Judge Richardson dissenting.

Waller against Johnson and others, from the Circuit Court of the City of Norfolk. Affirmed, Judge Fannell delivering the opinion. Judge Richardson dissenting.

Newton against Commonwealth. Writ of error refused to judgment of Circuit Court of Loudoun county, rendered 22d January, 1887.

Loyal against Commonwealth. Writ of error refused to judgment rendered by the Hustings Court of the city of Richmond on the 9th of February, 1887.

Virginia Midland Railway Company against Reynolds. Dismissed by plaintiff in error.

Fleming against Kelly. Argued by R. G. H. Keen and S. Griffin for appellant and Major T. J. Kirkpatrick for appellees and submitted.

PETITION FILED AND RULE GRANTED. Colonel R. T. Hubbard has filed a petition in the Supreme Court for E. B. Spence, administrator of George P. Spence, deceased, a judgment creditor of the Richmond and Alleghany Railroad Company, representing that he is aggrieved by the refusal of the Hon. B. R. Wellford, Jr., judge of the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond, to allow him to file a bill. The Court issued a rule requiring Judge Wellford to show cause, if any he can, why the Commonwealth's writ of peremptory mandamus should not be awarded the said petitioner commanding the said Judge Wellford, judge of the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond, to permit the petitioner to be made a party defendant in the two chancery suits aforesaid.

CITY CIRCUIT COURT. The following cases were disposed of in this court yesterday:

Miss Harriet L. and Miss S. Smith vs. Alois Rich. Verdict for plaintiffs in the sum of $175. This suit was for damages alleged to have been sustained by a horse taking fright at a pile of building or paving material left on west Franklin street by the defendant, and running over the same. The judge said he would allow the plaintiff to file a motion for a new trial was made and overruled.

Ashworth & Mosby vs. J. G. Ross. Verdict and judgment for $178. This was an action on open account.

The case of Elliott vs. Sylvester was dismissed on motion of plaintiff's counsel.

Messrs. Courtney & Patterson, attorneys at law, instituted suit against R. W. Randolph for $100. To secure the money an attachment was issued and his greenhouse, flowers, &c., were levied on.

TO HAVE TWO GUARDIANS. The controversy over the guardianship of the orphan child, J. Sutton Winston, which has been pending in the Chancery Court for some time, was settled yesterday. Mr. E. R. Winston, the grandfather, wanted to qualify as guardian, and an uncle having a similar desire, the matter was taken to the court. It was agreed yesterday that both uncle and grandfather should qualify as guardians, and Judge Wellford, of the Circuit Court, in the absence of Judge Holladay, entered an order in compliance with this agreement.

MISTAKEN CASE, YESTERDAY. The cases of Jane Lightfoot and Sarah Moss (colored), charged with receiving the stolen crockery of H. P. Phillips & Stein from Jeff Thomas (who was convicted a few days ago) have been continued until the next term, as it was evident when the trial was about to commence yesterday that it would not be concluded at this term, ending to-day.

The February term has been an unusually busy one, and the court has been constantly engaged in the trial of cases. Many important cases which were on the docket had to be carried over until March.

THE ROYAL TRIAL TO-DAY. The information against Mr. William L. Royal for intimidating the grand jury is set for hearing in the Hustings Court to-day. The rule for contempt will not be acted upon until after the jury have been sworn, and the charges made in the information.

CRIMINAL CASES IN THE HUSTINGS COURT. The cases of Islam Jenkins (colored), charged with falsifying swearing in the Police Court, and Rosa Jones (colored), charged with shooting Daniel Robinson with a pistol, are set for trial in the Hustings Court to-day.

If the Royal case is taken up to-day, it will be carried over to the March term.

THE BARBARY CASES. Mr. W. R. Meredith, on behalf of the Commonwealth, yesterday argued the question in the Hustings Court as to whether the act of battery under the Virginia statute is a misdemeanor, or whether it is only punishable as a disorderly person, which is to be decided by the jury.

THE NEW CITY JAIL. The rule against the City Council by the grand jury to appear before the Hustings Court and show cause why a new city jail should not be erected, has been postponed from this term of the court until the next.

POLICE COURT. J. P. Malone, assaulting and beating the child of J. W. Carr with a baseball bat. Continued till Tuesday, March 1st.

James E. Randolph (colored), drunk, fined $2 and costs.

Thomas Madden and Fred Meeks, common tramps. Ordered to leave town in twenty-four hours.

Wash. Adams, failing to pay market tax in First market. Fined $5.

HE DID IT WITH A BASE-BALL BAT. Mr. J. P. Malone was before the Police Court yesterday morning, charged with assaulting and beating the child of J. W. Carr with a baseball bat.

Mr. Ross, who was called to Mr. Hamilton's to see the little boy Thursday afternoon and took him home from there, said that the blow would not result seriously, but that he thought it inadvisable for him to come to court yesterday morning. When he reached the back of his head, which indicated that the blow was a severe one, but there was no laceration.

Sergeant R. L. Thomas testified that about 4 o'clock yesterday evening he received a message that Mr. Malone was going across a field he noticed a crowd of boys in the lot on Main street between

A GENTLEMEN'S CLUB.

IT WILL SUPPLY THE RUNNING AND TROTTING ASSOCIATION.

Prefatory Arrangements Made and a Committee Appointed to Solicit Members, &c.

An adjourned meeting of the Virginia Running and Trotting-Horse Association, or rather of those interested in the reorganization of it, was held at the Exchange Hotel last night. Eight o'clock was the time for the meeting, but the gentlemen were slow arriving, and it was after 9 o'clock before a sufficient number to proceed had collected. At this time there were about fifteen present, the majority of them owners of private teams and fine horses.

Several other gentlemen expressed themselves as agreeing with Mr. Ayers, and it was unanimously decided not to attempt a reorganization.

RIDING AND DRIVING CLUB. Mr. J. S. Hirsch suggested that in lieu of this association they take the preliminary steps to organize a riding and driving club.

Mr. Hirsch moved that a committee of five be appointed to canvass the city and solicit members of the club.

The motion was adopted after being amended to make its number twelve instead of five.

THE COMMITTEE. The Chair (Mr. Ayers), with the advice of the other gentlemen, appointed the following committee: Messrs. H. Clay Chamblin (chairman), J. S. Hirsch, Miles Cary, W. R. Mallory, Lewis F. Hill, Ed. Hannevinkel, W. Adams, Oscar Perry, C. P. Stokes, Barton H. Crum, and S. A. Ayers, and Parker Connor.

Some of the gentlemen appointed on this committee were not present.

In addition to seeing their appointment from this notice, each of those appointed had a track in his mind.

Mr. Ayers, as soon as these gentlemen receive official information of their appointment, Mr. Chamblin will call a meeting, to be held at his office or some other convenient place, and they will thoroughly organize for the work.

WHAT IS PROPOSED. There was a considerable amount of informal talk about the club, its objects, how best to accomplish them, &c. The idea is that this club shall be composed of gentlemen who own teams and contribute to its support.

It is proposed that a track be laid on which they can ride or drive whenever they please, and where, without annoyance or danger to anyone, they can speed their horses.

Mr. Ayers expressed himself as desiring to see a track laid on the western side of the city, which they can fit up with a nice half-mile track.

Other gentlemen thought it better, certainly for the present, to secure the use of the Fair Grounds track, of which Mr. Fletcher has a lot, say of five acres, somewhere near the western side of the city, which they can fit up with a nice half-mile track.

THE DEATH OF MRS. LOTH.

A Supposed Case of Morphine Poisoning.

Police-Justice Richardson yesterday requested Coroner Taylor to make an investigation as to the death of Mrs. Leona Carter Loth, which occurred at her residence, No. 304 west Main street, at 12:40 A. M. February 24th.
